

999 EMS Research Forum Conference 2022

All in this together: collaboration in emergency prehospital care research

Day 1 Programme, Tuesday 29 March 2022 (online)

10:00 – 10:05	Introduction by Professor Helen Snooks , chair of 999 EMS Research Forum
10:05 – 10:15	Welcome by Kathryn Lavery Chair of Yorkshire Ambulance Service NHS Trust
10:15 – 10:20	Chair: tbc
10:25 – 10:50	Collaboration in emergency care research Professor Alistair Hall , NIHR CRN (Yorkshire & the Humber)
10:50 – 10:55	Chair: tbc
10:55 – 11:45	How can the police and ambulance services effectively collaborate in the provision of emergency healthcare? Academic, Police, PPI and Ambulance Service perspectives
11:45 – 11:55	Refreshment break (direct to ePostersLive)
11:55 – 12:00	Chair: tbc
12:00 – 12:15	Peer reviewed oral presentation 1
12:15 – 12:30	Peer reviewed oral presentation 2
12:30 – 12:45	Peer reviewed oral presentation 3
12:45 – 13:00	Peer reviewed oral presentation 4
13:00 – 14:00	Lunch break (direct to ePostersLive)
14:00 – 14:05	Chair: tbc
14:05 – 14:40	COVID-19 999 RESEARCH PRIEST study Carl Marincowitz , University of Sheffield - TRIM study (view from site) Imogen Gunson , West Midlands Ambulance Service NHS Foundation Trust - Improving the prehospital identification and management of people presenting to the ambulance service with COVID 19 symptoms Dr David Fitzpatrick , Scottish Ambulance Service
14:40 – 14:45	Chair: tbc

14:45 – 14:50	Rapid elevator presentation 1
14:50 – 14:55	Rapid elevator presentation 2
14:55 – 15:00	Rapid elevator presentation 3
15:00 – 15:05	Rapid elevator presentation 4
15:05 – 15:10	Rapid elevator presentation 5
15:10 – 15:20	Refreshment break (direct to ePostersLive)
15:20 – 15:25	Chair: tbc
15.25 – 15.40	Australasian College of Paramedicine 2021 International Conference Best of the Best winner Matt Wilkinson-Stokes, University of Melbourne Adverse events from nitrate administration during right ventricular myocardial infarction: A systematic review and meta-analysis
15:40 – 15:45	Chair: tbc
15:45 to 16:45	Collaborating in research to improve care: International perspectives Dr Kelly-Ann Bowles, Monash University, Australia - Dr Walter Tavares, University of Toronto, Canada - Dr Niamh Cummins, Irish Paramedicine Education & Research Network, Republic of Ireland - Dr Willem Stassen, University of Cape Town, South Africa
16.45 to 16.55	Voting poll results and prizes and concluding remarks Professor Helen Snooks, chair of 999EMS Research Forum

999 EMS Research Forum Conference 2022

All in this together: collaboration in emergency prehospital care research

Day 2 workshops and networking - June 2022 date TBC (in person event)

Venue: Sheffield United Football Club

12:15 – 13:00	Arrival, Registration & Lunch, (room tbc)
13:00 – 14:30	WORKSHOP A Undertaking data-centric healthcare research: Experiences from urgent and emergency care systems Professor Suzanne Mason, University of Sheffield	WORKSHOP B Pathways for a career in research Facilitator tbc
14:30 – 14:50	Refreshment Break
14:50 – 16:20	WORKSHOP C The how and why of networking as paramedic researchers Caitlin Wilson, University of Leeds Dr Greg Whitley, East Midlands Ambulance Service Jamie Miles, Yorkshire Ambulance Service Jack Barrett, South East Coast Ambulance Service	WORKSHOP D Effective involvement of patient & public in prehospital emergency care research Facilitator tbc
16:20 – 17:20	999 EMS RF Board Meeting (Board members only)
18:00 - 19:00	Drinks reception (room tbc)
19:00 - 21:30	* Dinner

* Dinner is a pre-paid event