

999 EMS Research Forum
Quality and risk in 999 healthcare: A balancing act?

Tuesday 3 March 2020 - Hilton Brighton Metropole -
 Day One - Pre-conference Workshops and Dinner

Afternoon Session
12:15 – 13:00	Arrival, Registration & Lunch, (Sussex Lounge and Lancaster Room)
13:00 – 14:30	<table border="1"> <tr> <td style="text-align: center;"> WORKSHOP A (Viscount Room) Using visual media to present qualitative findings: challenges and insights Professor Julia Williams and Dr Laura Abbott University of Hertfordshire </td> <td style="text-align: center;"> WORKSHOP B (Clarence Room) Coming up with research ideas – thinking outside the box Professor Helen Snooks Swansea University and Jack Barrett South East Coast Ambulance Service NHS Foundation Trust </td> </tr> </table>	WORKSHOP A (Viscount Room) Using visual media to present qualitative findings: challenges and insights Professor Julia Williams and Dr Laura Abbott University of Hertfordshire	WORKSHOP B (Clarence Room) Coming up with research ideas – thinking outside the box Professor Helen Snooks Swansea University and Jack Barrett South East Coast Ambulance Service NHS Foundation Trust
WORKSHOP A (Viscount Room) Using visual media to present qualitative findings: challenges and insights Professor Julia Williams and Dr Laura Abbott University of Hertfordshire	WORKSHOP B (Clarence Room) Coming up with research ideas – thinking outside the box Professor Helen Snooks Swansea University and Jack Barrett South East Coast Ambulance Service NHS Foundation Trust
14:30 – 14:50	Refreshment Break (Lancaster Room)
14:50 – 16:20	<table border="1"> <tr> <td style="text-align: center;"> WORKSHOP C (Viscount Room) Presenting quantitative research findings Dr Wendy Wood NIHR Research Design Service South East Region </td> <td style="text-align: center;"> ± WORKSHOP D (Clarence Room) Learning and Knowledge Services for Ambulance Services (LKS ASE) - practical support for your research journey (this workshop requires that you bring a laptop or tablet) Matt Holland LKS ASE Librarian </td> </tr> </table>	WORKSHOP C (Viscount Room) Presenting quantitative research findings Dr Wendy Wood NIHR Research Design Service South East Region	± WORKSHOP D (Clarence Room) Learning and Knowledge Services for Ambulance Services (LKS ASE) - practical support for your research journey (this workshop requires that you bring a laptop or tablet) Matt Holland LKS ASE Librarian
WORKSHOP C (Viscount Room) Presenting quantitative research findings Dr Wendy Wood NIHR Research Design Service South East Region	± WORKSHOP D (Clarence Room) Learning and Knowledge Services for Ambulance Services (LKS ASE) - practical support for your research journey (this workshop requires that you bring a laptop or tablet) Matt Holland LKS ASE Librarian
16:20 – 17:20	Board Meeting (Board members only) (Viscount Room)
Evening session
18:30 - 19:00	Drinks reception (Lancaster Room)
19:00 - 21:30	* Dinner (Clarence Room)

± Workshop D requires that you bring a laptop or tablet

* Dinner is a pre-paid event

999 EMS Research Forum
Quality and risk in 999 healthcare: A balancing act?

Wednesday 4 March 2020 - Hilton Brighton Metropole - Day Two - Main Conference

08:15 - 09:10	Registration and refreshments (Sussex Lounge and Viscount Room)
	MORNING SESSION (Clarence Room) Chair: Dr Fiona Moore
09:10 - 09:25	Welcome by Dr Fiona Moore, Medical Director, South East Coast Ambulance Service NHS Foundation Trust
09:25 - 09:55	Dr Andrew Carson-Stevens, School of Medicine, Cardiff University Applying lessons of safety research in 999 prehospital care
09:55 - 10:25	Dr Fiona Bell, Yorkshire Ambulance Service NHS Trust Supporting Wellbeing in Ambulance Personnel (SWAP) study
10:25 - 10:45	Refreshments and poster viewing (Viscount Room)
10:45	Peer reviewed oral presentations (Clarence Room) Chair: Janette Turner
10:50-11:05	Dr Chen Ji, Warwick Clinical Trials Unit, University of Warwick Long term outcomes of participants in the PARAMEDIC-2 randomised trial of adrenaline in out of hospital cardiac arrest
11:05-11:20	Imogen Gunson, West Midlands Ambulance Service University NHS Foundation Trust Did West Midlands Ambulance Service Paramedics' usage of adrenaline change after the publication of the PARAMEDIC2 results, but prior to any guideline change? A service evaluation
11:20-11:35	Christopher Holt, SchARR, University of Sheffield Major Trauma Triage Tools Study (MATTS) triage tools summary
11:35-11:50	Mark Kingston, Swansea University PERCH – Preliminary Exploration of the Role of paramedics in Care Homes
11:50-12:05	Graham McClelland, North East Ambulance Service NHS Foundation Trust A two armed, randomised, controlled exploratory study of adding a dry misting decontamination system to deep cleaning procedures in North East Ambulance Service
12:05-12:20	Dr Mary Halter, Kingston University & St George's, University of London What factors do EMS clinicians report as influencing their decision to perform a prehospital 12 lead ECG in Acute Coronary Syndromes?: a qualitative study
12:30 - 13:30	Lunch (1890 Restaurant) and poster viewing (Viscount Room)
	AFTERNOON SESSION (Clarence Room)
13:30 - 14:20	Moderated Poster Sessions (Viscount Room) Moderators: Dr Alison Porter, Dr Chris Moore, Peter Eaton-Williams and Jack Barrett Chair: Professor Niro Siriwardena
14:20 - 14:40	Rachael Berry, College of Health and Medicine, University of Tasmania 2019 Paramedics Australasia International Conference best research prize winner Anaphylaxis recognition: Is there consistency in Paramedic and Emergency Department diagnosis?
14:40 - 15:10	Dr Tom Hughes, Oxford University Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust Ambulance Data Set : Standardising Data across Urgent and Emergency Care
15:10 - 15:30	Refreshments and poster viewing (Viscount Room) Chair: Janette Turner
15:30 - 16:00	Professor Simon Moore, Cardiff University Evaluating the Diversion of Alcohol-Related Attendances (EDARA) project
16:00 - 16:30	Debate - Social media in pre-hospital care: friend or foe? Mr Peter Gregory, University of Wolverhampton Professor Julia Williams, University of Hertfordshire
16:30 - 16:45	Prizes and concluding remarks – Janette Turner
16:45	Conference end